SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether a major fire took place recently in Kirti Nagar, Delhi killing, seven firemen;

(b) whether encroachments have been blamed as major hurdle in controlling the fire;

(c) whether it is a fact that encroachments from the roads in Kirti Nagar Furniture Market were removed many times but the same again took place because of the police not taking effective action to check encroachments; and

(d) what action does Government propose to take against Delhi Police for not shopping encroachment?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Encroachments did not cause any hurdle in controlling this fire. However, there were difficulties in controlling the fire as a portion of the structure collapsed and the remaining portions were dangerously poised which inhibited fire fighting from close proximity.

(c) and (d) The responsibility of removing illegal encroachments is that of the civic authorities. Delhi Police provides assistance as and when required for removal of encroachments. The local police of Kirti Nagar area has been providing all possible assistance to the Municipal Corporation of Delhi to remove encroachments to ensure free flow of traffic, especially the fire fighting tenders. Since no lapse on the part of Delhi Police has come to notice, there is no proposal under consideration of the Government to take any action against it.
